SURF STYLE AT HOME

Raili Clasen

“Crank up the color,” “Landscape your living room,” and “Adult summer camp vibes” are just a handful of the mantras that drive California interior designer Raili Clasen’s eclectic surf style. Surf Style at Home takes readers into Raili’s colorful, surf-inspired, checkerboard-printed mind through homes she’s designed—from quirky beach cottages and an Alabama lake house to sprawling new-construction homes in Newport Beach, Montana’s Yellowstone Club, and beyond. Raili cheers on readers to take that feeling they get from their favorite vacation spot or boutique hotel and bring it into their own space. Tips on maximizing outdoor spaces, utilizing earthy materials like leather and rope, and infusing your favorite song lyric or phrase into the home create unique spaces that are comfortable and fun.

Capture the effortlessly cool and playful style of California surf culture from the designer of Kelly Slater’s Surf Ranch.

RAILI CLASEN'S personal home design landed her in several magazines aiming to show readers California eclectic surf style. Early origins at Raisins Swimwear and then California-cool brands like Quiksilver, Roxy, Paul Frank and Alice Supply Co. left lasting impressions on Raili, forging a signature, no-rules style that has been described as “design with a wink.” Raili now leads a full-service interior design team in Southern California. Her work has been featured on TV shows including HBO Max’s Beach Cottage Chronicles and Chip and Joanna Gaines’ Magnolia Network series Point of View: A Designer Profile Show. In print, Raili’s fun and inviting projects have appeared in Architectural Digest, House Beautiful, Dwell, Coastal Living, Domino, and more.

OUTSIDE IN INTERIORS BORN FROM NATURE

Brian Paquette • Foreword by Amy Kehoe

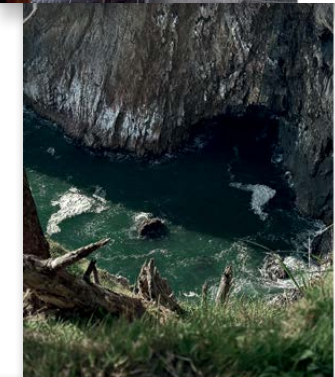

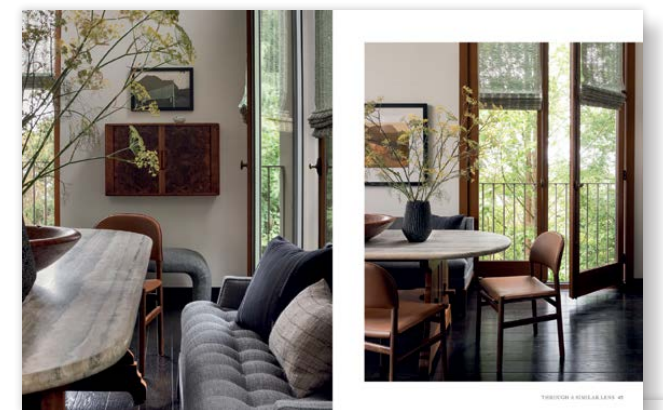

Brian Paquette’s second book represents the most recent steps in his evolution as an interior designer. He starts with an honest, introspective story that lets readers into his personal life—challenges, delights, and how he draws inspiration from long walks on the beach and environs. Then, concise chapter introductions and gallery-like photo displays unfold Paquette’s signature earthy palettes and his masterful layering of textures. Woven throughout are his personal photographs of nature scenes that energized his work. Readers will be prompted toward keener observation in their natural surroundings and ways to bring those poignant moments into their own homes.

Brian Paquette shows how connection to nature is key to creating a meaningful and supportive home environment.

BALANCING ACT

We were given more than 100 photos to choose from. The photos for the most part stayed on the beach, but we also wanted to show the connection to the Pacific Northwest coastline. We found a beautiful view from the beach that we loved. It was a large and very meaningful photograph. It was the only one that we had to use. It was a large and very meaningful photograph. It was the only one that we had to use.

BRIAN PAQUETTE Interiors was established in 2009. With a background in painting and conceptual art, Paquette brings a singular point of view to the interior design scene. Rather than follow a particular style, he draws inspiration from a variety of sources: architecture, travel, and the natural world, to name a few. That mindset is at the heart of Brian Paquette Interiors. He divides his time between Seattle, WA, and Cannon Beach, OR.

AUTHENTIC INTERIORS

ROOMS THAT TELL STORIES

Philip Gorrivan

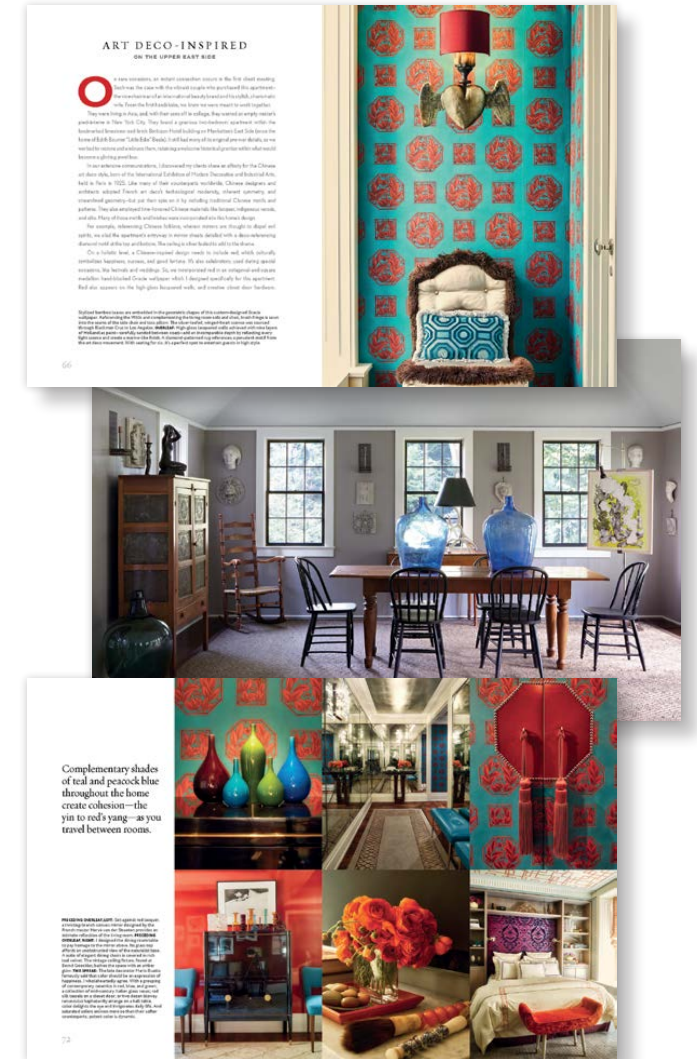

Incorporating vivid hues, a palette of intriguing textures, and a scholarly understanding of art and furnishings, Phillip Gorrivan's work transcends period and milieu. His aesthetic spans from 18th-century English and European antiques to vintage French Modernism and the work of the finest contemporary artisans. His projects, tailored and layered, are reminiscent of the stylish past, but always utterly up to date. His magic lies in an ability to conjure stories: e.g. lacquering a wall and placing in front of it a perfect object, or curating a collection of glass beneath a riotously patterned window shade. He is unafraid to wield a jolt of glamour or inject the unexpected, but never forgets that a room must ultimately reflect the genuine inner life of those who inhabit it.

Philip Gorrivan does not merely decorate. Instead, he creates a unique and authentic narrative of his clients' next chapter through singular surroundings.

Since 2001, when PHILIP GORRIVAN opened his Manhattan-based design firm, he has become known worldwide. Featured in countless major publications, including Elle Décor, Luxe, Architectural Digest, House Beautiful, and the New York Times, Philip Gorrivan has also appeared on television with Nate Berkus and on LXTV's Open House. He has created rooms for the Kips Bay Decorator Showhouse (New York and Palm Beach), as well as the Hamptons Designer Showhouse and the fabled Doheny Mansion Showhouse in Beverly Hills. In addition to his interiors, he has created a wallpaper collection available in twenty showrooms across the US and a fabric line with Baker Furniture. His lighting is offered by Best & Lloyd.

ADUS THE PERFECT HOUSING SOLUTION

Sheri Koones

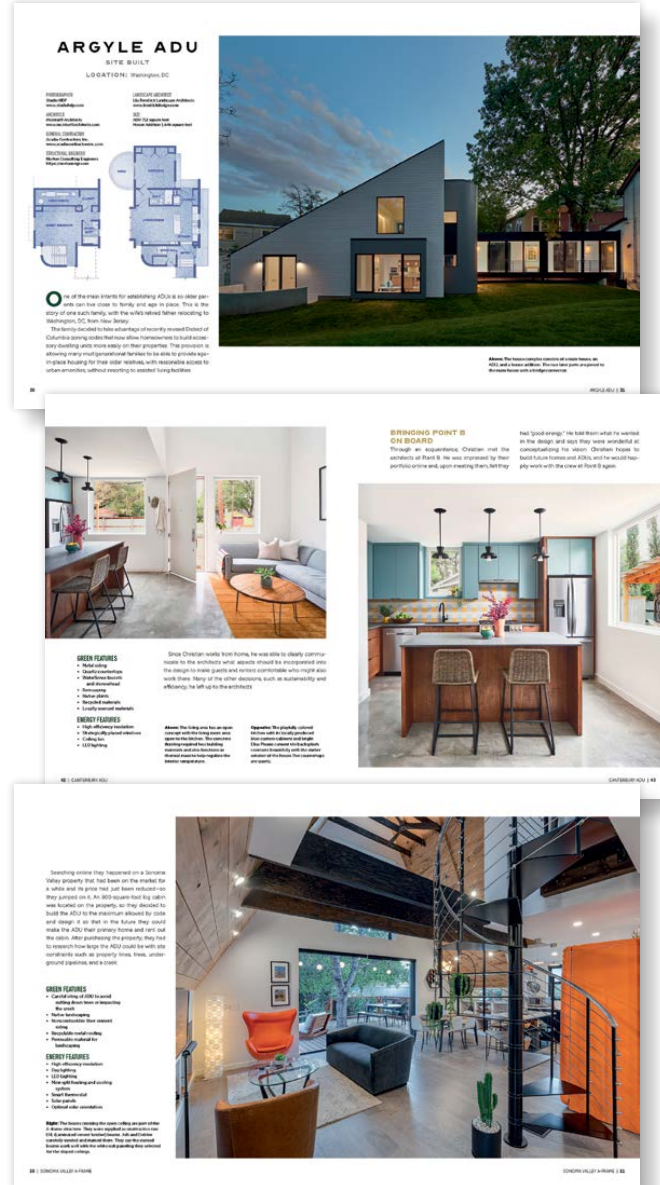

An Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU) is a smaller housing unit built on the same lot as a primary dwelling (also known as Additional or Auxiliary Dwelling Units)—think granny flat, in-law unit, laneway house). It has an arrangement for sleeping, cooking, and lavatory. The uses are myriad—for family members, guest spaces, rental income, or more. These attractive, well-designed ADUs are located from coast to coast in the US and Canada. Each includes information about the type of construction, the major green features, and how it is used. A variety of styles (e.g., laneway houses, garage conversions, stand-alone structures, and ones connected to the primary house) show versatility and ways to blend new ADUs into the architecture of the primary house and neighborhood.

PRIVATE GARDENS OF PHILADELPHIA

Nicole Juday • Photographs by Rob Cardillo

In Philadelphia and its surrounding counties, the reader will visit 21 private gardens behind tall hedges, down quiet lanes, or tucked into bustling neighborhoods. Here, gardening knowledge and plants themselves have been passed down through generations, culminating in a wonderful depth of expression from the artists, designers, writers, conservators, and other experts whose gardens are included. These gorgeous private gardens are products of years of hard physical labor; financial tradeoffs; responding to constant threats of damage by tornados, floods, deer, unwanted development—some combination of challenging constraints. But as all gardeners know, constraints are necessary to push the limits of resourcefulness and creativity.

FRENCH FROM THE MARKET

Hillary Davis • Photographs by Sheena Bates

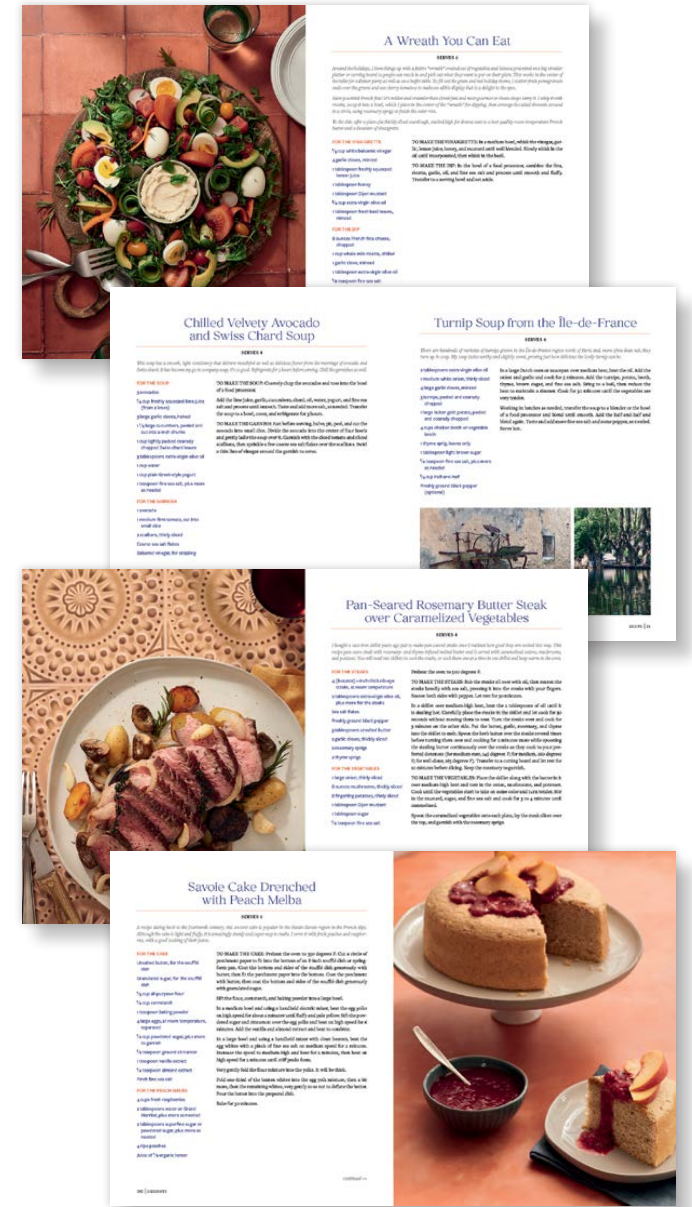

Hillary Davis shows that French food isn't always haute cuisine. It is also an art, that uses the freshest and finest ingredients available from gardens, markets, and local vendors to put nourishing meals on the table. And, as Davis point out, French home cooking is not hard. The 100 plus recipes for starters, soups, salads, fish, poultry, meats, vegetables, and desserts in this cookbook, along with detailed instructions and tips, prove her right. Embrace at-home cooking, with these market-fresh recipes: Arugula Salad over Watermelon with Herbed Goat Cheese; Weeknight Halibut in Basil Cream with Cherry Tomatoes; Autumn Harvest Chicken with Grapes, Apples, and Figs; Broiled Lamb Chops with Warm Potato and Herb Salad; Fluffy Cauliflower and Cheese Quiche; and Fruity, Frosty Cantaloupe Sorbet.

LIVING ASTROLOGY

How to Weave the Wisdom of All 12 Signs into Your Everyday Life

Britten LaRue

Going beyond the popular Sun-Moon-Rising astrology, this insightful guide inspires you to expand the possibilities of who you think you can be. Transformational astrologer Britten LaRue teaches you how to embrace the whole of the zodiac, with month-by-month invitations to connect with the part of yourself that is each sign. For example, if you don't have any major placements in Leo in your chart, you might assume that you don't have any Leo qualities. But with that you deny yourself the play, the visibility, and the big-hearted leadership that the Leo inside of you craves.

Supportive practices like creativity prompts, tarot card pulls, and altar settings help you live what you learn.

RADIANT RAINBOWS DECK

80 Heart-Healing Meditations

Jessica Swift

When Jessica Swift’s husband passed away unexpectedly, she began painting rainbows to process her grief as well as to express her gratitude for the love and compassion she was shown during that difficult time. To Swift, rainbows represent freedom, resilience, inherent worthiness, forgiveness, self-respect, tenacity, growth, kindness, healing, and so much more. Each card in this deck features a healing affirmation, a thoughtful question, and Swift’s stunning rainbow artwork.

A perfect gift for anyone suffering through challenge or loss, this deck offers comfort and compassion.

GOOD MORNING, NATIONAL PARKS

Illustrated by Jen Taylor

Good Morning, National Parks board book takes you and your toddler on an outdoor adventure as the day begins to explore nine different national parks. The interactive activity prompts and nine slide-action pages add to the explorations with little readers pointing to fall colors, spotting coastal animals, finding hiding mama bears, pretending to be a geyser, and counting mountain goats. This book is a wonderful way to encourage admiration for the national parks, a sense of adventure, and a respect for nature with your child.

JEN TAYLOR is an illustrator, designer, and major caffeine enthusiast. She loves traveling and taking road trips to new places in her tiny house on wheels with her husband Marc, and the two best explorers—their corgis, Rocket and Gidget. Jen has worked on a lot of fun projects, including The Golden Girls: Goodnight Girls, Flash: The Little Fire Engine, and The Brave Little Camper series. She loves to draw cars, and anything outdoorsy, but most of all anything that lets her add in her retro flair!

COUNTDOWN TO SCHOOL

Greg Paprocki

It's nine days until school starts, and what do we do? We go shopping for school clothes, of course! Three days before school starts, we talk about our feelings because it is okay to be a bit nervous. And two days before school starts, we organize our school supplies and pack them into our backpack. We are ready to go!

Toddlers learn to count down from 10 to 1 as they mark the days until school begins, and they can practice counting by finding objects hidden throughout these fun back-to-school scenes in Paprocki's classically retro mid-century art style. From finding green library books and blue water bottles to exploring the playground and visiting the classroom, there's fun to be had on every page. Discover new details in each illustration with every successive reading of the book.

GREG PAPROCKI works full-time as an illustrator and book designer. He has illustrated several Curious George books, the Little Leonardo series, and the BabyLit alphabet board books including S Is for Santa, B Is for Boo, E Is for Easter, and T Is for Thankful. Titles in the Count and Find series include Countdown to Christmas, Countdown to Halloween, Day of the Dead, Christmas, and Trees. Greg's Gibbs Smith titles have sold over 730K copies. He lives in Omaha, Nebraska.

BEAUTIFUL BUTTERFLIES

Illustrated by Margarida Esteves

Every page turn of this chunky board book reveals a new layer of Margarida Esteves's bright, graphic depiction of a stage in the life of a butterfly. A gentle introduction to maturation and diversity, this rhyming story reminds readers that everyone begins life small and then grows through various stages, some slightly awkward, to then emerge as a butterfly flying high in our own uniquely beautiful way. "When they are grown and ready to spread their wings to fly, nothing is more beautiful than a butterfly reaching up, up, up for the sky."

Beautiful Butterflies is part of the LAYERED VIEW board book series, where every die-cut page adds a level to the story—all building to one gorgeous, multi-dimensional scene perfect for displaying on a bookshelf or a bedroom shelf.

I AM BOLD

FOR EVERY KID WHO'S TOLD THEY'RE JUST TOO MUCH

Andie Powers • Illustrated by Betsy Petersen

Bea is not loud—she is BOLD! Sometimes people tell Bea she's just too much. Whether she's bugging her brother like a buzzing bee, helping out a bit too much in class, or blasting her trombone as loud as it goes, she is often misunderstood. While grownups and even other kids might see her as loud, we know that she's got stuff to say, things to do, and friends to make!

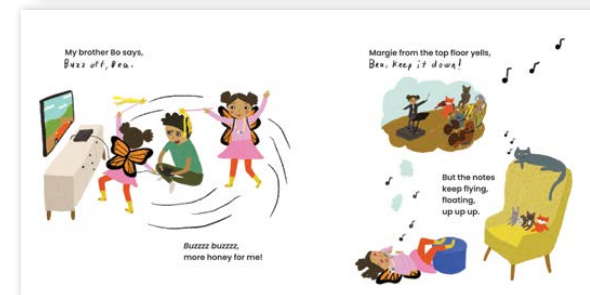

This story is for the child who lives out LOUD and boldly uses their voice to be heard above the crowd. Bea's story shows us that when the strongest voices are celebrated, their boldness inspires beauty and positive change.

Jason Gruhl

This gorgeous deck helps kids explore and reveal who they are while helping them understand the world and those around them. By bringing attention to their thoughts (swords), emotions (cups), intentions (wands), and actions (coins), kids expand their self-awareness, confidence, and connection to others. Powerful characters like The Magician (imagination and will power), The Hermit (quiet observation and focus), and Strength (courage and determination) give kids ways of naming the many different parts of themselves. Friends can ask each other questions by using the cards to spark rich conversations. Parents can use them for exploring new ways of thinking about a hard situation at school.

JASON GRUHL believes that all kids are smart, brave, kind, and creative, and he writes books to help them remember that. As an author and psychotherapist for children and adults, Jason is dedicated to making a difference in people's lives and to helping them realize their power and potential. He is the author of the bestselling Fountain Tarot deck.

KRISTINA KISTER is an illustrator from Essen, Germany. Her work includes books like Unicorns, Myths, and Monsters, The Book of Stolen Dreams, and All About Dragons.

Engage with some of life's biggest questions thoughtfully, creatively, and playfully.

TERMINAL ISLAND
LOST COMMUNITIES ON AMERICA'S EDGE

Geraldine Knatz and Naomi Hirahara • Foreword by William Deverell • Afterword by George Takei

Terminal Island traces the history of a sheltered island that began as resort for wealthy landowners, became a refuge for its artists and writers and scientists, and then a community of Japanese families who made the island their own. World War II devastated the community; the internment of Japanese Americans forcibly removed the entire population of Terminal Island. Terminal Island: Lost Communities on America's Edge tells the story of this small place, the people who lived there, and the huge impact they had on the history of Los Angeles.

SANTA MONICA PIER
AMERICA'S LAST GREAT PLEASURE PIER

James Harris • Foreword by Robert Redford

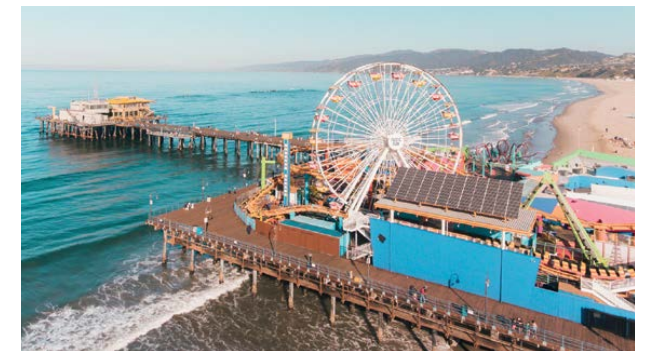

Celebrate a century of good times on the Santa Monica Pier, with the revised edition of Santa Monica Pier: America's Last Great Pleasure Pier! Vintage images and magnificent color photos capture this beloved international icon at its very best, now updated with more images and information than ever before. Its dramatic story of survival—fighting Mother Nature, politics and changing times—makes Santa Monica Pier more than a landmark, more than a pleasure pier or a must see on the West Coast. Santa Monica Pier is a slice of American history to be enjoyed again and again and again.

BOWLARAMA!

THE ARCHITECTURE OF MID-CENTURY BOWLING

Chris Nichols with Adriene Biondo

Bowlarama! Style and Leisure in Mid-Century America takes aim at the obsession that swept the post-war nation: bowling! More than just a sport or a hobby, bowling became the ultimate modern lifestyle for Americans savoring the boom years that followed World War II. Bowling alleys were modern palaces; companies constantly aimed to outdo each other for the most spectacular architecture, the most luxurious lanes, the snazziest bowling balls, or the most exciting refreshments. Bowlarama! brings back—in living color—all the excitement in its lavishly illustrated pages, packed with vintage photographs, exciting ephemera, and detailed hand-drawn architectural renderings that capture all the optimism, enthusiasm, and joie de vivre of the era.
