

For Alexander, Ethan, Oliver & Emilio

Born April 7, 1949, Fernando Llorca was a world-renowned Salvadoran artist. His artwork sparked an artisan movement among El Salvador's agricultural workers. He taught them how to use their artistic ability to make a living. As a result, the town's agricultural faction quickly transformed into an artisanal atmosphere, generating jobs outside of farming. To this day, Fernando Llorca's art continues to inspire many to try their hand at artistry!
