Welcome once again to the wonderful world of Chinglish! Perhaps you'd like to start your trip by checking in to the Resist Bacteria Hotel? Once you get settled, it's time for supper. May we suggest the binaural infected cucumber? It's really quite delicious. And after supper, how about a night on the town? But remember: no voting in the pool!

Oliver Lutz Radtke is the author of Chinglish: Lost in Translation. He works as a multimedia producer and editor in Beijing.
