First he taught boys all about mischief and perfecting their shenanigans against a nemesis. Next it was how to play games—without the help of a video-game controller. Now Bart King introduces them to all the important stuff they need to know but adults don't want to tell them. From cool experiments and essential gadgets to flying things and gross stuff, Bart explains it all.

With its handy little size, Pocket Guide to Boy Stuff can go everywhere boys do.

Bart King is the author of The Big Book of Boy Stuff, The Big Book of Girl Stuff, The Pocket Guide to Mischief, and The Pocket Guide to Games.

Bart lives in Portland, Oregon, where he enjoys scrapbooking and collecting bayonets.

Throughout history, weapons have mostly been used for war and violence. That's bad. Still, there are some good uses for weapons, like hunting, competitions, and self-defense.

Boys (and men) are interested in the weapons that are used for fighting. We hate the need for these deadly gadgets, but we are fascinated by them. Heck, the high point of every James Bond film is when 007 gets his high-tech weapons. Secret agents in real life have also been given some pretty strange devices.

Allied secret agents during World War II (1939–1945) who were dropped behind enemy lines sometimes carried special handkerchiefs with them. If the agent urinated on the handkerchief, a map of the territory they were in appeared!

These agents also had guns and knives hidden in unusual places. Belt buckles, gloves, mechanical pencils, and even tobacco pipes could conceal small guns. Some had a knife that was inside of a pencil.

Funny Things to Say When Someone Barfs

"HE'S GOT THE URGE TO REGURGITATE! THROW UP ALL THAT FOOD HE ATE! VOMIT! VOMIT!"

"YEAHHHH, VOMIT!"

Fun Barfing Facts

★ YOU MAKE ME WANT TO PUKE! Sea cucumbers can squirt out some or all of their guts when threatened. This is so disgusting, their would-be predator leaves. The puke is also sticky and tough. Some island cultures squirt sea cuke puke onto their feet like a pair of water shoes to protect their feet while they walk around in the water!

★ WHEN A COW CHEWS ITS CUD, it's basically chewing its own barf!
