Swan Lake

MY FIRST BALLET BOOK

Swan Lake

Retold by JENNIFER ADAMS

Art by COREY EGBERT

She remained a swan by day but returned to her human form by night. Only by a young man declaring his love for her would the spell be broken.

Once upon a time, a young woman named Odette was playing in the forest with her friends. A wicked sorcerer appeared and turned her into a swan.

That evening, Siegfried's friend told the story of an evil sorcerer who turned young women into swans.

Just then a flock of swans flew overhead. Siegfried and his friends ran off to find them.

They arrived at a lake where the swans had alighted.

The prince took aim at the swans with his bow, but one flew toward him. She transformed into the most beautiful woman he had ever seen.

The next day at the palace,
the Queen expected Prince Siegfried to choose a wife.

But he could only think of Odette.
