Spring is in the air!

We are excited to welcome the first round of books for 2027 with our spring catalog. 2026 was a big year for Gibbs Smith, and we can't wait to see what 2027 will bring.

Last year brought two big anniversaries: 10 years of Greg Paprocki and 15 years of BabyLit. These two children's series have been the face of our company in many ways, and we are so grateful for the authors, artists, and contributors who have helped us reach these milestones.

This was our first year as a distribution client for Simon & Schuster. While closing our own warehouse was a significant transition, we are excited about the opportunities ahead and look forward to continuing this partnership. Please reach out to your Simon & Schuster sales representative or customer service team with any questions or orders.

2026 was a year of goodbyes. Our wonderful Publisher and President, Suzanne Taylor, hung up her (very colorful) dancing shoes and retired after 28 years with the company. We also said a fond goodbye to Madge Baird, who retired after 52 years in editorial. These two powerhouse women have given so much to make our company and our offerings what they are, and they will be greatly missed. We now welcome Michelle Branson as Publisher and President and are excited to move forward under her leadership.

We also published a passion project book this past year. What started as a silly joke at a company retreat became When a Moose Has a Mustache—a playful story filled with forest animals sporting all kinds of mustaches! This book is a fun reminder of what can happen when colleagues get together, brainstorm, and build on one another's ideas. It's unbelievably special to see an idea that started in a room together become a book you can hold in your hands.

This teamwork and celebration reflect the kind of energy we hope to bring to you in 2027. Whether it's through the most beautiful books we can imagine or the silliest ideas that will make kids giggle, we have something for just about everyone.

As a 100 percent employee-owned, certified B Corp, every book we publish is the result of our collective creativity, dedication, and belief in the power of stories. From editors and designers to marketers and print teams, we share ownership of both the work and the mission: to craft books that enrich, inspire, and educate generations. Thank you for partnering with us on this mission. We appreciate you!
